Privacy Policy and Client Consent

At Lone Star Registered Investment Advisors, PLLC, we prioritize the privacy and security of our clients' personal information. We believe that safeguarding this information is essential to maintaining customer trust and sound business practices. We employ physical, electronic, and procedural controls to protect client confidentiality. Access to personal information is restricted to third parties who require it to develop, support, and deliver services to you. Your personal and financial information will only be shared with third-party representatives with your express written consent.

Collection of Opt-In Information

We collect opt-in information from users through various forms on our website, including email subscriptions, contact forms, and event registration forms. This information may include, but is not limited to, names, email addresses, and phone numbers. We only collect opt-in information that is necessary for the purpose it was provided for.

Use of Opt-In Information

The opt-in information collected through our website is used to provide our users with the services they requested, such as email newsletters, event updates, and customer support. We may also use this information to personalize the user experience on our website and to improve our products and services.

Sharing of Opt-In Information

We do not sell, rent, or otherwise share opt-in information with third parties unless we have the user's explicit consent or are required to do so by law.

Data Security

We take appropriate technical and organizational measures to secure the opt-in information collected through our website from unauthorized access, use, disclosure, or destruction.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may modify this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our privacy practices. If we make any changes, we will update this Privacy Policy and post the revised version on our website.
